The Muse design: Howard Grossman, 744 Creative
Letter From the Executive Director

I love this place. I love the people who perform here, and I love the people who come to their shows. I love the people who work here; our hundreds of volunteers, our staff, our crew and our board of directors, our members, donors and sponsors who all share this love of our theater and the community it serves.

Some eighteen years and many pounds ago, I fell in love with a woman and followed her to Tarrytown. We decided to take a break from our performing careers and see if we could help build up The Music Hall, the place her parents (Berthold and Helen Ringeisen) had been instrumental in saving in the early 80’s. I am writing this the day before Thanksgiving, this immigrant’s favorite American holiday, so I want to tell all of you how grateful I am for this unexpected twist in my life almost two decades ago that has allowed me to find a new home in this fantastic community! Thank You Karina, thank you Westchester and Tarrytown!

The Music Hall has now grown into a major regional performing arts venue, with some 200 events annually, from morning school shows and youth theater, to concerts with international stars. Every year is a new adventure, this most recent one spanned all the way from Charlotte’s Web to Bon Jovi! I also want to mention a very special gift from our long time angle supporter and Board Treasurer, Kent Sheng: a gorgeous 9ft concert grand piano! The Sheng Steinway, for performers and patrons to enjoy for decades to come.

We have also added a whole new adventure to the mix: The Music Hall Academy, a performing arts school with a “360 vision” approach, both in terms of providing training for all aspects of the performing arts, from performing, to sound/lights and production, as well as viewing the work as a way for people to achieve personal growth through the arts. We offer programs for both kids and adults, check us out at www.tarrytownmusichall.org/academy. I have my office right above The Music Hall Studio where the Academy programs take place, and I just love hearing the joyful sounds of an action class or our popular show choir.

How wonderful it is, in a time where we have access to everything and everything instantly on computers, TV’s and smartphones, that we still have this deeply human urge to get together and enjoy the arts. This formula, “Real People, performing for Real People, in Real Time”, that direct connection doesn’t seem to be replaceable with computers.

We couldn’t do this, AND take care of our historic building, without the support of all of YOU. A theater like ours is like the living room of its community. For generations, people have come here to socialize, to enjoy great music, theater and movies, and I am certain that a century from now, our kids and grandkids will still be coming here, so we will do our best to leave this community treasure a little better than we found it for them. With your help, we can do it!

Thank you.

Enjoy the show!

Björn Olsson,
Executive Director Letter From the Board President

A Warm Welcome To Music Hall Patrons:

I am pleased to introduce myself and to welcome you to The Tarrytown Music Hall. I have been a fan and a patron since I first moved to Tarrytown in 2003. I am sure you will understand when I tell you that it was a natural progression to go from attending concerts, to becoming a member, then a member/donor and most recently President of the Board. There is just something about this place that makes you want to chip in and contribute to the success of this “gem”; a historic treasure and non-profit arts organization that means so many things to so many people in our community.

As a music enthusiast I am grateful to have the opportunity to see so many remarkable performances right here in Tarrytown, my own backyard, without having to commute far into the city for world-class entertainment. Many people express an appreciation for the intimacy of the setting here as well as superior acoustics. If you are as wowed as I am—and I hope you are—by the roster of artists who take to our stage and by the vibrancy of camaraderie within our community of patrons, staff and volunteers then I whole-heartedly invite you to strengthen your involvement and join our ranks. You’ll be working with a great group of people committed to serving the arts and our community and have a blast while doing so.

We at The Music Hall work hard to ensure there is something for everyone—from the youngest child witnessing his or her first live play to music fans of all genres. Please consider becoming a member—or increasing your membership level; I am confident you will find it quite rewarding to help support the arts, keeping live music and theater performance at the Music Hall thriving for decades to come.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact me via email at: president@tarrytownmusichall.org

Warm regards,

Rob Clarfeld, President
1880: Constructed in 1885 by chocolate manufacturer William Wallace. One of only 6% of theaters in the US built before 1900 that still exists today.

1890s: The annual flower show is a fixture on the High Society calendar. “New World Symphony” composer Antonin Dvorak performs.

1900s: The Music Hall is one of the first theaters in the area to progress from silent films to “talkies.” Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson speak at the theater.

1925: A larger marquee is added and the main entrance on Kaldenberg Place is moved to Main Street.

2014: The Music Hall undergoes a $3M restoration project that ensures the structural integrity of our landmark theater for the next century.

2015: Becomes the only solar powered music venue in Westchester.

2018: Music Hall Academy is born.

1950s and 1960s: Single screen Main Street movie houses decline, in 1976 The Music Hall shows its last film.

1980: Founding board members Helen and Berthold F. Ringeisen spearhead the mission to save the theater from becoming a parking lot, orchestrating the purchase of The Music Hall on Valentine’s Day with the purpose of establishing a nonprofit, performing arts center.

2014: The Music Hall undergoes a $3M restoration project that ensures the structural integrity of our landmark theater for the next century.

2015: Becomes the only solar powered music venue in Westchester.

- Local children often have their earliest experience with live theater at The Music Hall
- Our 134-year-old historic theater that has been a gathering place for art & culture in Westchester since 1885
- We are proving that a 19th century building can be a showcase for renewable energy
- We are an economic engine driving $6 million into our community annually

New Theater Arts Education Under The Motto “Art for Life”

Collaboration! Cooperation! Teamwork! Creativity! Problem Solving! These are just some of the “superpowers” kids gain at The Music Hall Academy. The Academy is The Music Hall’s theater arts education program, where kids learn important life skills that are valuable both on and off stage!

What parents are saying about The Music Hall Academy

“Our daughter loved her experience at The Academy; it gave her confidence in front of a crowd and let her explore her creative impulses. She is eager to return!”

“We are so grateful to have access to The Academy which is a gem right in our own community.”

“The Academy was an amazing experience for my daughter. She gained musical skills and some great friends.”

“The Music Hall Academy is a wonderful place for a child to get exposure to theater and the arts. The staff is highly experienced and wonderful with children.”

This spring, your child can be a hero in the new musical “Superhero!” where kids become heroes and learn to use their powers at their own special school! Other creative workshops for kids grades K through 12 include Shakespeare Playground, Academy Show Choir, Scene Study, Improvisation, Create Your Own Show, Dual Language Theater, Yoga for Actors and Cumbia for Kids. A complete list of current offerings is available online.

To register your child for this program, learn about financial aid or to support The Music Hall Academy, visit: tarrytownmusichall.org/academy

Resident Companies

The Music Hall is host to a lot of touring talent, but we are committed to supporting high quality performing arts in our region as well. Westchester is home to some incredible companies! Our patrons have already had the opportunity to see our new Resident Company Ballet Des Amériques in action, and I am very excited to announce that we will be continuing and expanding this partnership. BDA has both an academy for top quality dance training and a professional company and we will be hosting events for both arms of this very ambitious group. Check our online box office for upcoming shows as they are added, both for BDA and our other Resident Companies Westchester Symphonic Winds and Random Farms Kids’ Theater. Last year, The Music Hall supported its Resident Companies with more than $50,000 worth of space. Your membership and donations make it possible, thank you!

School and Family Programming for Young Audiences

Spark imagination! Inspire creativity!

Early exposure to the arts can help children unleash their full potential. That’s why every year The Music Hall opens its doors to tens of thousands of children who visit our theater on a school trip or with their summer camp. For many children, this is their very first experience with live theater.

Familiar stories like Frog & Toad, The Hungry Caterpillar, and Junie B. Jones are brought to life on our stage creating a magical moment for the children. “I feel like I am in a dream!” is just one of the many reactions overheard from our youngest audience members. The power of the arts to connect with our young audience is measured in the smiles, laughter and fun that the fills The Music Hall.

The Music Hall also offers main stage performances that are geared especially to families. The Nutcracker Ballet, presented in just an hour, is the perfect introduction to this holiday classic for even the most fidgety little ones. Other fun-filled family friendly shows include: Bubble Time, Jack Hanna Into The Wild, Disney’s Choo Choo Soul, and Dr. Suess’ The Cat In The Hat.

The Music Hall is the perfect place to introduce live stage performances to your youngest arts fan. Our theater is welcoming and as cozy as your living room at home. We invite you to plan your visit soon!
