LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Music Hall Patron,

Since 1885, this Music Hall has been sitting right at the heart of its community. Through wars, political upheavals, financial booms, and busts, this landmark theater has been reinvented by each generation to serve new needs and purposes. Originally a hall without a stage, it was used for roller skating, horse and flower shows, vaudeville, and other events that delighted Tarrytowners and people from all over the region. Eventually, a stage and proscenium arc were added to turn it into a traditional theater space. Then, a novelty item, the “moving picture,” came along. First, they were shown as part of vaudeville evenings, but they soon became the main attraction. Eventually, single-screen theaters fell out of fashion and our theater slowly sank into disrepair until movies ended in the ’70s.

No one seemed to imagine that The Music Hall would be able to reinvent itself yet again. In fact, in one Tarrytown Board of Trustee election, one party even went with “Tear Down The Music Hall” as part of their platform. And it came pretty close... Weeks before the theater was to be torn down in favor of a parking lot on a very run-down Main Street, a group of volunteers managed to raise the funds necessary to purchase the building and slowly return it to a usable state.

Like in so many downtowns across America, the salvaged historic theater became a vital component in revitalizing Main Street and beyond. Today it is widely recognized as a regional performing arts venue and the ONLY independent nonprofit theater in Westchester. (This mainly means we are entirely responsible for the upkeep and restoration of our treasure, so do consider joining as a member if you haven’t already!) As we celebrate our 135th anniversary and the Village of Tarrytown turns 150, I am delighted that no one is proposing to tear down the theater anymore. Now, we enjoy overwhelming support from our village, as we have for many years.

I would like to give a very special thank you to Rob Clarfeld, a long-serving board member and our most recent board president who retired from the board at the end of 2019. Rob guided us through some rocky years after our big structural upgrade project, he’s provided this music hall with countless amounts of sage advice, and he’s donated several very generous gifts. He is also an extremely knowledgeable music connoisseur who loves live performances. We hope to see him back for many, many shows for years to come. Thank you, Robert, we wouldn’t be here without you!

Cheers, Tarrytown! We have come a long way together, and I wouldn’t be surprised if the best is yet to come. Happy Birthday!

Björn Olsson,
Executive Director

The Friends of the Mozartina is the 501(c)(3) nonprofit, cultural and educational organization that owns and operates the 1885 Tarrytown Music Hall, a building listed on the National Register for Historic Places. Our mission is threefold: to present diverse and relevant programming in music, theater, dance and film for the enrichment of the tri-state community; to promote arts education through classes, partnerships, performing opportunities and residencies; and to preserve and restore the historic Music Hall so that it may continue to be a vibrant performing arts center and catalyst for sustainable economic development in our area.

We present world-class musicians and performing artists right here in Tarrytown.

We provide our resident companies with a "home-stage advantage" so they can reach a wider and more diverse audience.

Local children often have their earliest experience with live theater at The Music Hall.

Our 135-year-old historic theater has been a gathering place for art & culture in Westchester since 1885.

We are proving that a 19th century building can be a showcase for renewable energy.

We are an economic engine driving $6 million into our community annually.

THE MUSIC HALL TIMELINE

Constructed in 1885 by chocolate manufacturer William Wallace. One of only six percent of theaters in the U.S. built before 1900 that still exist today.

1890’s: The annual flower show is a fixture on the high society calendar. “New World Symphony” composer Antonin Dvorak performs.

1900’s: The Music Hall is one of the first theaters in the area to progress from silent films to “talkies.” Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson speak at the theater.

1915: Women’s Suffragette Ball takes place on The Music Hall’s stage.

1925: A larger marquee is added, and the main entrance on Kaldenberg Place is moved to Main Street.

1939: The Wizard of Oz and Gone with the Wind premier at The Music Hall.

1940’s: The Music Hall becomes a first-run movie house.

1980: The Music Hall was purchased on Valentine’s Day 1980 with the purpose of establishing a not-for-profit performing arts center and was operated by volunteers for 23 years. Pictured here: Berthold F Ringeisen, Helen Ringeisen, Morton Epstein and Raymond Bowles.

2014: The Music Hall undergoes a $1.5M restoration project that ensures the structural integrity of our landmark theater for the next century.

2015: The Music Hall becomes the only solar-powered music venue in Westchester.

2018: Music Hall Academy is born.

Why We Need Philanthropreneurs?

We need people who have an entrepreneurial mindset when it comes to their philanthropy. We need people who bring new levels of strategic thinking and investment to the arts, our community, and The Music Hall. This new kind of supporter helps us turn our plans into reality. Quite simply, we need you.

A Philanthropreneur is someone who:

• believes in meaningful community engagement through the arts.
• supports efforts that drive millions of dollars into our local economy.
• helps us gain additional funding for our arts programming and theater restoration.
• serves as an inspiration to others.
• feels a sense of pride and satisfaction by supporting a nonprofit they value.

Ticket sales only cover a portion of the theater’s annual operating costs. Philanthropy is essential to ensuring the long-term success of The Music Hall and the new Music Hall Academy.

To learn more about the exciting and meaningful ways you can become a Philanthropreneur, contact Sheila Emery Murphy, Director of Philanthropy, at 914-631-3390 x 115 or smurphy@tarrytownmusichall.org.

ROCK THE HALL

We launched Rock The Hall in 2018. Over 200 bands submitted music, and we enjoyed listening to each and every one. In the end, Alisa Amador’s folk rock sound wowed our judges and a packed audience, and she won first place. Her next album, “Live at Factory Underground,” grew directly out of Rock The Hall, and is due out in March. We could not be more proud. NPR describes Amador as “a pitch-perfect rendition of my wildest dreams.” Keep an eye out for our first-ever Rock The Hall winner!

In 2019, Riki Stevens sang solo on our stage, and you could hear a pin drop. Stevens is an incredible artist with an amazing story to share. She’s been recording with Issacs, Addabbo and Fraboni, and will open for Aaron Neville at The Tarrytown Music Hall on April 18, 2020.

Rock The Hall is meant to be a ‘fund-and-friend-raiser,’ bringing musicians and audiences together to celebrate under-discovered talent. Please spread the word, submit music, and come join us on September 12, 2020. See you then!
We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the wonderful men and women who dedicate their time to The Music Hall. They make so much of what we do possible. Thanks to their efforts, we are able to provide so many exciting events for our community.

Also, we’re thrilled to share some wonderful news about Marge Maguill, one of our longest-serving volunteers. She’s now back on her feet after tackling some health problems last year. We’ve missed you, Marge, and we hope that you will come back as soon as you can!

For more information on how to become a Music Hall volunteer, contact Kelly Palmedo at house@tarrytownmusichall.org.
The Music Hall Academy

What is The Music Hall Academy?
The Music Hall Academy is the performing arts education/enrichment program at the historic Tarrytown Music Hall. Led by Academy Director Peter Royston and Academy Administrator Erica Everett, the Academy offers:

- A wide range of workshops and productions for young people grades 2 through 12 throughout the school year and the summer months!
- In-school residencies and productions for schools throughout the Hudson Valley!
- Distance learning workshops for students in China!
- Entertaining and enriching productions for young audiences and families!
- The Music Hall Players, a new community theater venture combining the talents of adult and child actors from our community!

While The Music Hall regularly welcomes touring talent to our stage, we are also committed to supporting high-quality performing arts in our region as well. Last year, The Music Hall supported two resident companies: Westchester Symphonic Winds and Random Farms Kids’ Theater. We donate our stage and theater to both programs, allowing these talented children and adults to rehearse and perform in a professional theater. Our commitment to these companies also provides our patrons the opportunity to enjoy a high-quality symphony and watch young talent grow into professional performing artists. Your membership and donations help us keep the arts alive in Westchester. Thank you!

It is with heartfelt appreciation that The Music Hall thanks retiring Board President Robert Clarfeld for his visionary leadership that has been integral in the important advances and improvements at our historic theater. He has worked tirelessly behind-the-scenes to strengthen our organization, advance major capital improvements and establish The Music Hall Academy. As Rob departs our stage, we say “Bravo” and applaud him for everything he has done for our theater during his tenure as President.

A grateful Music Hall also thanks -- from the bottom of our hearts to the top of our balcony -- retiring Board Members Eve Brooks & JoAnne Murray for their thoughtful leadership and dedicated service.

School and Family Programming for Young Audiences

Spark Imagination! Inspire Creativity!

Early exposure to the arts can help children unleash their full potential. So every year, The Music Hall opens its doors to tens of thousands of children who visit our theater on a school trip or with their summer camp. For many children, this is their very first experience with live theater.

“I feel like I am in a dream!” is a common reaction we hear from our youngest audience members. The power of the arts to connect with our young audience is measured in the smiles, laughter, and fun that fills The Music Hall.

The Music Hall is the perfect place to introduce live stage performances to your youngest arts fan. Our theater is welcoming and as cozy as your living room at home. We invite you to plan your visit soon!
Choose 100% pollution-free electricity

Power your home with 100% wind and solar electricity from the nation’s longest serving retail supplier of renewable energy.

Over 1,000 visitors participate in our free open house events. Throughout the theater, there are activity stations such as arts & crafts, music classes, dance classes, storytelling, puppet shows, cartoons, Lego building, face painting, and healthy eating workshops. Mainstage educational performances for children are the major feature of each of these events.

The Family Fun Series and Family Fun Days are made possible with a generous support from The Westchester Community Foundation. Additional support from 914 Smiles, ArtsWestchester, Franzoso Contracting, Green Mountain Energy, The Master’s School, Rotary Club of the Tarrytowns.
